AnnArborObserver.com includes all events listed in the monthly Ann Arbor Observer. To submit an event to the print Observer calendar, send email by the 10th of the preceding month to events@aaobserver.com. The description will be written by our events editors and tagged "listed by the Ann Arbor Observer" with the symbol.

If your event does not fit into the print calendar, you can post it online yourself - use the "register" link above to get started. You can list events as much as a year in advance. These listings are tagged "listed by public" with the symbol.

Note: If your event is included in the Observer print calendar, our editors' listing will replace your listing online.
 If your event is being published in the print calendar, please do not post it online. We always post our print listings online. If you aren't sure, give us a call at 734-769-3175 or e-mail us at events@aaobserver.com.

We hope this new calendar option meets your needs. There may still be a few bugs. If you find any or have questions or concerns, please notify us at info@creativewashtenaw.org. Thank you!
